

Nasser Abdel-Fatah

Education

Johnson State College (JSC) Johnson, VT
Environmental and Health Science Department
Bachelors of Science: Intergraded Environmental Science
Degree expected in spring of 2016

Randolph Union High School Randolph, VT
High School Diploma received in 2011

Employment

JSC Orientation Leader 2013 to Present
Duties included: Worked with a co-leader and assisted 10 to 15 transfer students in preparation for their first academic day at the college.

JSC Student Government Association 2012 to 2015
Duties included: President Pro Tempore—served as the liaison between the Presidents' cabinet and the senators to complete assigned tasks.

Research in Adaption to Climate Change 2014 to 2015
Duties included: Intern, worked with Dr. Tania Baucus, for ten weeks, on a comprehensive study of local Vermont climates, taking past weather data and inputting hourly/yearly/seasonal data from 2000 to 2014 into Microsoft Excel.

JSC Student Government Association, President 2013 to 2014
Duties included: coordinated with the faculty and administration of the college to complete projects based upon student interest. Served on the Vermont State College Student Association to complete statewide college projects: lobbying for higher education.

Route 66 Farm Stand and Garden Center, Sales and Laborer 2005 to 2014
Duties included: Sales—sold bedding plants in the spring, vegetables in the summer and fall, and Christmas trees in the winter.

JSC Rock Laboratory Assistant 2011 to 2013
Duties included: Assisted Dr. Leslie Kanat in making 20 rock thin sections and set up labs for his Earth Science classes.

State of Vermont, Youth Conservation Corporation, Trail Crew 2010
Duties included: improved trails on two project sites in northern Vermont. Removed invasive species and restored five stream embankments.

Volunteer Work

Johnson State College

2011 to Present

- Student Representative for the Common Reading Selection. This panel of College faculty staff and students decides what book the incoming first-year students will read over the summer.
- Student Panel member—met with 10 to 100 prospective students to discuss life as a Johnson State College student.

Randolph Union High School (RUHS)

- Scholarship workshop: provided information to 15 students on the importance of scholarships.
- RUHS Class of 2011 Scholarship: Spearheaded a new $500 scholarship for RUHS Seniors.

Presentations and Participation in Scientific Conferences

- Northeast Geological Society of America, Bretton Woods, NH 2015
- 7th Annual Vermont EPSCoR Student Research Symposium 2015
- New England Intercollegiate Geological Conference, Lebanon, NH 2012

Honors and Awards

- Student Transition Achievement Retention Teaching Scholarship ($10,000) 2012-2015
- Margaret G. Ottum Environmental Scholarship ($2,500) 2015
- Alumni Council Scholarship ($750) 2014
- Ichoose Profile Award 2014
- Margaret G. Ottum Environmental Scholarship ($500) 2013
- Student Government Association Memorial ($3,000) 2013
- John Lord Scholarship ($2,000) 2013
- Doris U. Spencer Scholarship ($800) 2013
- Alumni Council Scholarship ($450) 2013
- Staff/Faculty Scholarship ($500) 2012
- Dr. Richard M. Daum Scholarship ($500) 2012

Certifications

- Vermont Driver License, no points.

Computer Skills

Microsoft Word, Microsoft Excel, Social Networking, Adobe Illustrator, ESRI ArcGIS