

GREGORY CUNNINGHAM

337 College Hill Rd., JSC Box # 723
Johnson, VT 05656
(802) 644-8879 or (413) 237-2922 (cell)
gregory.cunningham@jsc.vsc.edu

Education

Johnson State College – Johnson, Vermont

Expected Graduation Date – December 2006

Major: Environmental Sciences with a concentration in Natural Resources

Coursework includes: Biology, Chemistry, Earth Science, Environmental Problems, Toxic and Solid Waste Management, Energy and Mineral Resources, Ecology, Coastal and Marine Resources, National Parks and Wilderness Management.

Work Experience

Environmental Compliance Services – Agawam, Massachusetts

6/2005 – 9/2005

Jr. Field Technician

- Environmental Site Assessments
- Drilling, soil borings, and groundwater monitoring
- Contaminated site reclamation
- Landfill monitoring
- Excel data logs

Green Mountain Club – Waterbury Center, Vermont

6/2004 – 9/2004

Backcountry Ranger

- Maintained Appalachian Trail and managed numerous backcountry campsites
- 24-hour, emergency first-responder to hikers and campers
- Educated and informed hikers about ecology of the area, as well as low impact hiking and travel
- Maintained composting privies and composted waste
- Collected overnight fees at multiple campsites
- Worked alone and unsupervised for extended periods of time

Tolland State Forest – Otis, Massachusetts

6/2003 – 9/2003

Seasonal Park Ranger

- Routine Patrol of campground, forest, and reservoir
- Assisted in environmental education programs
- Campsite and trail maintenance
- Fee collection and camper check-in on park computer
- Provided camper assistance

Certifications

Level 1 Avalanche Awareness – Johnson State College/Sun Valley Trekking

Completed 2/2006

Completed the curriculum for a Level 1 Avalanche Training as outlined by the American Avalanche Association. Course Location: Sawtooth Mountains, Idaho

Hazardous Waste Operations and Emergency Response – National Environmental Trainers

Completed 6/2005

24-hour training course on hazardous waste operations and emergency response meeting the requirements identified in Title 29 CFR 1910.120

National Park Ranger Certification – Northern Arizona University; Flagstaff, Arizona

Completed 11/2004

National Park Service approved law-enforcement training program consisting of 400+ hours of natural resource protection training. Graduates are certified to work as federal resource protection officers in the National Park Service and similar agencies.

Wilderness First Responder – Wilderness Medical Associates

Completed 2/2004

72-hour wilderness first responder training course. Certification is good for three years and content includes basic life-support and anaphylaxis certifications, as well as the WFR certification.

Interests

Interests include: hiking, camping, skiing, reading, swimming, playing guitar, running, traveling, rock climbing, wilderness and natural resource management