

Eric Alan Labor

ericlabor@hotmail.com

11 Chrispathway

Barre, Vermont 05641

(802) 479-9208

Education

Johnson State College, Johnson, Vermont
BS Environmental Science, Natural Resources, May 2004

Spaulding High School, Barre, Vermont, 2000

Work Experience

Vermont Leadership Center, Crew Leader, East Charleston, Vermont
June 1 – September 2, 2003

- Supervision and leadership of nine youth crew members in completing conservation work and service learning.
- Taught young people how to become self-motivated learners and stewards of the region's communities and natural resources.
- To instill within participants the knowledge, caring, and motivation needed to take responsible action on behalf of themselves, their communities and the natural world.
- CPR and SOLO Wilderness First Aid Certified.

New Directions for Barre, Community Organizer, Barre, Vermont
May 20 – September 2, 2002

- Organized alcohol, tobacco, and other drug free, educational activities for teenagers.
- Role model for teenagers through personal 'non-use' of alcohol, tobacco and other drugs.
- Facilitated volunteer projects and service learning for teenagers.
- Experience with professional diversity training and CPR Certified.
- Developed and maintained a broad based coalition in order to raise funds for educational programs.

Smugglers Notch Resort, Sports Shop Supervisor, Jeffersonville, Vermont
October – April 2002 & 2004

- Retail Sales of ski and snowboard equipment and other accessories.
- Managing multiple in-store tasks as well as opening and closing.
- Supervision of seven other store employees. Two to three per shift.

Vermont Agency of Transportation – Soils and Materials Division, Boring Crew
Montpelier, Vermont, May 21 – September 1, 2001

- Operated drilling and boring equipment in the field with a team of three to four members.
- Assisted with subsurface investigations and collection of soil and rock samples to determine their condition and to define the material properties required for safe and economical design of bridges, roadways, and other structures.

Barre Country Club, Bag Room Supervisor, Plainfield, Vermont
June 1996 – September 2000

- Managed duties for ten other bag room attendants.
- Assisted with operation of Pro Shop.
- Assisted with a weekly teaching clinic for kid's ages 6-14.

Awards Received

- National Student Exchange, Western State College, Gunnison, Colorado
Fall 2002 – Spring 2003
- Vermont Academy of Science and Technology – Senior Scholarship Recipient
Vermont Technical College, Randolph, Vermont, Fall 1999 – Spring 2000
- National Honor Society, 1999

Volunteer Experience

Smugglers Notch Adaptive Ski Program, Jeffersonville, Vermont, January – March 2004

- Assist those with special physical or psychological needs with individual ski instruction.
- Using a wide variety of teaching techniques, enthusiasm and encouragement, and professionalism to enhance the outdoor experience for those with special needs.

Western State College Service Club, Fall 2002 – Spring 2003

- Crested Butte Land Trust, Crested Butte, Colorado
Duties included trail building, weed pulling, seed cultivation and the ongoing project of cleaning and reclaiming the Peanut Mines.
- YouthBuild, Gunnison, Colorado
Peer tutored and mentored kids over 16 who are trying to earn their GED.

Bureau of Land Management, Gunnison, Colorado, October – November 2002

- Cleaned out, replaced, stabilized and recorded information for over 200 blue bird boxes.

Environmental Monitoring of Wetlands, Gunnison, Colorado, September – December 2002

- Kept records of the stability and health of wetlands to establish trend data for natural restoration.

Interests

- Skiing, hiking, biking, camping, playing guitar, being a good steward to the environment through conservation, recycling and composting.

