

James A. Spatafora
94 Nelkin Road, Colchester, CT
06415
(860) 908-2067
james.spatafora@jsc.edu

Education

Bachelor of Environmental Science, Johnson State College, Johnson, VT

*Degree Expected:
August 2008*

- Major: Environmental Science with a concentration in Natural Resources

Related course work: earth science, meteorology and climatology, water resources, energy and mineral resources, toxic and solid waste management, environmental economics, current topics in environmental science, and national parks and wildlife management.

High School Diploma

Bacon Academy High School, Colchester, CT

*Graduated: June
2004*

- General high school diploma in accordance with Connecticut state requirements.
-

Experience and Skills

Employment

Prep Cook/ Dishwasher, The Rusty Nail, Stowe, VT (January 2008- current)

Repair Technician, R.C. Power Equipment LLC, Colchester, CT (May 2007- August 2007)

Deli Worker, Gretchen's Hometown Deli LLC, Johnson, VT (May 2008- December 2006)

Deli Worker, Grand Union Family Markets LLC, Johnson, VT (September 2005- May 2006)

Automotive Technician, Jack's Chevrolet, Oldsmobile, Pontiac, Inc., Colchester, CT (January 2004- August 2004)

- Responsibilities at Gretchen's Deli included operating the night business. Job responsibilities were overseeing the cashier and other deli help, as well as preparing equipment and supplies for the morning shift.
- Other previous occupational responsibilities have included dealing with customer relations and maintenance and general upkeep of the facilities.

Communication

- Presented many environmental topics to classes and student seminars that included possible solutions to present environmental problems.
- Attended multiple local and statewide forums and conferences where current environmental issues were addressed through presentations and personal participation in workshops.

Interests

- Played on the Johnson State College Rugby- Football Club for two years. Voted Rookie of the Year for the fall season of 2007.
-